

WITHINGS Research Wave

Withings Research Wave: Comorbidities of Diabetes

The American Diabetes Association 85th Scientific Sessions kicks off June 20th. See our latest research related to hypertension, peripheral neuropathy detection, and chronic kidney disease, all complications associated with diabetes.

Electrochemical Skin Conductance as a Novel Tool for Diabetic Foot Ulcer Risk Stratification and Prevention

A study of 2,149 patients showed promising results for ESC for the assessment of risk of diabetic foot ulcers (DFUs).

Learn More

Revolutionizing Chronic Kidney Disease Management with Digital Health Tools: The Withings Case Study

An article in Frontiers in Nephrology explores the potential of digital health for monitoring and managing patients with CKD.

Learn More

Withings Remote Patient Monitoring Program – An Outcomes Analysis on Hypertension

An analysis of Withings Remote Patient Monitoring (RPM) on hypertension management looked at 1,873 patients over six months.

Learn More

Attending ADA Scientific Sessions?

Come meet our team at booth 2924 and learn how partnering with Withings can support your research.

Conducting research and interested in partnering with Withings? Contact Us